

WELCOME TO FALL 2020!

New semester model

This semester is divided into two sessions, each with two courses, to stay flexible amid the changing conditions of the pandemic.

Tutorial-based classes

Classes are delivered through video lectures and face to face tutorial sessions where you can interact with your prof and ask questions.

Course selection info

Some courses will continue to be offered online; these are indicated with an asterisk.*

Upper level (300 and 400) courses are not open to new students as they require prerequisites.

Classes are filling up!

Classes that are almost full are marked with an hourglass.

Read on to see what's being offered this semester!

CHURCH AND MINISTRY

HIS 237 History of Christianity 1

Study Christianity from the first to sixteenth centuries

CM101 Foundations of Church Ministry

An introduction to the ministry of the Church in all its functions

BIBLE AND THEOLOGY

BLST 109 Intro to the New Testament

Dive into the content and message of the New Testament

THEO 112 Intro to Spiritual Theology

Study and practice Christian spiritual disciplines

THEO 200 Theological Methods

Explore how theologians have carried out the task of theology throughout history

ARTS AND SCIENCE

MATH 101 Intro to Finite Math

Develop problem solving and critical thinking skills as you learn basic mathematical concepts

COMM 104 Public Speaking

Gain the skills and confidence you need for a variety of public speaking situations

KIN 161 Foundations of Sport and Kinesiology

Gain foundational knowledge of the disciplines that make up kinesiology

PSYCHOLOGY

PSY 100 Intro to Psychology

Explore human behaviour, personality, and interaction

PSY 355 Biopsychology

Dive deep into the biological bases for human behaviour

PSY 379 Personal/Interpersonal Dynamics

Apply social psychology to personal and interpersonal interactions

PSY 383 Human Development: Adults

Explore normal adult psychological development

PSY 402 Psychology and Christianity

Gain an overview of Christian approaches to psychology

HUMANITIES

ENG 100 Literature and Composition

Develop your reading and writing abilities by studying short stories and novels

ENG 334 18th c. British Literature

Explore 18th century British culture and thought through novels

ENG 407 Urban Fantasy

Explore how authors fuse the elements of fantasy with the setting of modern London

⌚ PHI 100 Introduction to Philosophy

An overview of classical philosophical systems, critical reasoning and argumentation

PHI 314 19th Century Philosophy

An introduction to the world-changing thought developing in the 19th century

MUSIC

MUS 140 Basic Piano

Learn the fundamentals of piano playing at your own pace

MUS 216 History of Western Music 1

Experience developments of musical genre and form up to 1750

MUS 330/430 Vocal Master Class

Prepare and perform diverse styles of music

BUSINESS

BU 201 Intro to Marketing

Understand the process of marketing a product from start to finish

BU 330 Operations Management

Learn how the manufacturing process is managed

TESOL

LING 420 Ethics in TESOL

Dive into current political and sociological issues in TESOL
